0:08 Lara Pool: What I like most about working at Ebbsfleet Development Corporation is the friendly atmosphere, the supportive nature of all of the staff who work here.

0:17 Kevin McGeough: We like being right in the heart of the place that we're actually delivering so it's really great to see the impact you're having every day as you're going to work and going out and meeting with the community.

0:26 Jen Hunt: We're all driving towards a single goal to deliver the Garden City. So you really feel like you're breaking ground, and delivering something that is really very meaningful.

0:33 Caroline Doidge: The team really amalgamates different walks of life, different experiences and there's real variety in what people bring to the table.

0:41 James Richardson: It's definitely where there's lots of opportunity for people who've got lots of fresh ideas to come and really get involved in work that they wouldn't normally be doing.

0:49 Alex Lambert: It's great as I'm an apprentice, so I'm still learning the trade. My manager's been there for me for any questions that I've had, yeah, he provides really good guidance for me.

0:56 Lara Pool: We have a flexible working policy as well as hybrid working. As a parent, that's very much appreciated.

1:03 Jen Hunt: One of my highlights was when we all came together and did a 5 of a 10k run. Everyone who wasn't running was supporting us and it really was just something really nice to do with a really nice purpose, but also with your work colleagues.

1:14 James Richardson: You come to work wanting to come to work every day. It's not the sort of place where you're bored when you're at work, there's always something to do.

1:20 Alex Lambert: Everyone here just seems to be experts in their field. You're going to learn a lot and there's projects going on that is really going to help grow your experience.
